Brigadier General E. J. McGaw, USA
Commandant
The Army Information School
Carlisle Barracks
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear General McGaw:

Thank you very much for your very flattering letter of 3 March 1948. I regret also that I was unable to meet you, but I started back to Washington as soon after the lecture as I could.

It will be a great pleasure to meet you personally, and I am sure a lecture before your classes can be arranged; if not by myself, certainly by someone in the Central Intelligence Agency.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Office of the Commandant
Carlisle Barracks, Carlisle, Pa.

3 March 1948

Rear Admiral Roscoe Hillenkoetter
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, NW
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

I enjoyed the address which you made yesterday to the student body of Dickinson College on "The Functions of the Central Intelligence Office". I have been very much interested in its development.

Doctor Edel invited me to remain after your address in order to meet you. However, I was unable to do so, because Admiral Robert F. Hickey, Deputy Director, Office of Public Relations, Department of the Navy, was arriving at Carlisle Barracks at 12:15 PM. I am sorry I had to rush away. As it was, Admiral Hickey had already arrived when I reached the post.

I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you personally in the near future. Possibly you would consider lecturing our classes during the summer.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ E. J. McGaw
